Bringing 'World Class' a cappella to the Shire!

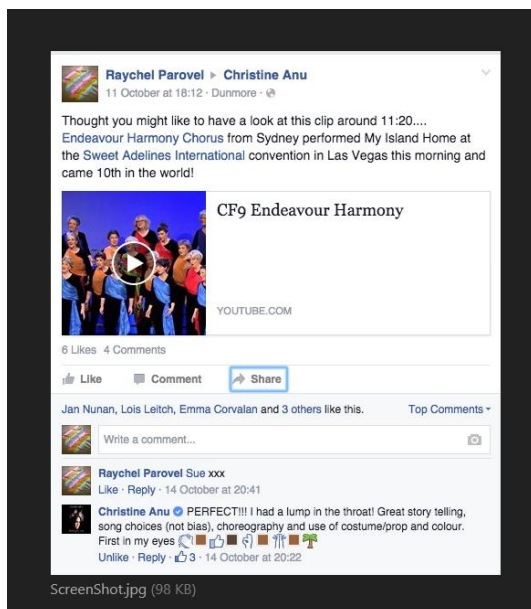

Fresh from their Top 10 performance in Las Vegas last year, Sutherland Shire's Endeavour Harmony Chorus are preparing for the National Contest in Wollongong later this month. The chorus are in the final stages of preparing an exhibition performance about their experiences in the US, in particular the webcast breakdown. "Thousands of our followers in Australia and around the world tuned in to watch us, only for the webcast to break down – we think this is a great subject matter for a laugh, so our performance will be about that" says Lea Baker, founder and Musical Director. Endeavour Harmony made history in October 2015 when they became the first Australian chorus to make the Top 10 in the world, at the Sweet Adelines International competition in Las Vegas. Endeavour's performance in the finals brought the audience of 7000 to a standing ovation in a moving package of songs with a uniquely Australian theme. The performance concluded with a heartfelt six part a-cappella rendition of 'My Island Home', the Neil Murray song made famous by Christine Anu. The chorus is holding an open dress rehearsal for their contest performance this Sat 7th May at 4pm in Keller Hall, 389 Port Hacking Rd South, Caringbah.
